

Trekking Type :	Camping
Trekking Grade :	Easy
Trekking Duration :	5 Days
People In Group :	1+
Trekking Price :	$.350
Max. Elevation :	2732 mt.

This route is an absolute and easy trek for people looking for hiking around Kathmandu Valley. The high point of the ridge, at 2732m, provides a stunning view of the city and its outskirts. Much of the trek is made through unspoiled old growth forests of oak, rhododendron and beech. Spot deers, monkeys and jackals are seen along the trail. The trek goes through many beautiful villages.

Short treks in Kathmandu...& in Nepal...as wholesome holidays...

There are, perhaps, many adventurers who will need to give up their dreams of reaching the summits of the great Himalayan Mountains due to certain physical constraints...’but never give up’ goes the adage. To help such enthusiasts live to their dreams ENCOUNTERS NEPAL has a host of options to offer in hiking & short treks on the rims of the Kathmandu valley & throughout Nepal in general.

Hiking is the best alternative for all those whose trips are dictated by factors such as time, physical fitness and/or age. In a short span of time you will be able to explore into the true essence of mountain adventure. Hiking offers you the opportunity to revel in the ethereal beauty of sunrise and sunset, green hills, pert hamlets, and forests inhabited by varieties of birds.

Hiking can be enjoyed as an ideal family trip with even the elderly and children capable of exploring and cherishing the natural wonders of Nepal. These short treks are also ideal for those coming to Nepal for short visit or for business purposes to exercise the body.

For those arriving to Nepal as a transit point for Tibet or India or even a Bhutan trip for a day or two, hiking can be your best option to gear up & unwind before you resume the journey to your final destination.

The Kathmandu valley, a political, commercial & cultural hub of Nepal is famed for its natural beauty and historic, holistic spots. The valley is rich in places of pilgrimage for both Hindus and Buddhists. Both of their deities stand well side by side by both tantric symbolism and ancient animistic beliefs.

A very old Hindu text has described Kathmandu as the land of gods surrounded by beautiful mountains around in a bowl shaped valley. It is said that there were as many temples as there were houses and many idols as there were people. In fact Kathmandu boasts one of the largest congregations of magnificent historical monuments and shrines ever built.

There are many beautiful and interesting places of exquisite nature to visit outside or on the rims of the Kathmandu Valley which are full of history and historical remains and are remarkable for their natural beauties. Most of these unique spots can be easily reached from Kathmandu by road or by air

Itinerary List

Day 1 : Kathmandu to Kakani to Aale Danda: Drive and trek.

Day 2 : Aale Danda to Shivapuri: Trek.

Day 3 : Shivapuri to Dhap: Trek.

Day 4 : Dhap to Nagarkot: Trek.

Day 5 : Nagarkot to Dhulikhel / Namobuddha and Kathmandu: Trek and drive.

Note

5 Days Kakani - Nagarkot - Dhulikhel Trekking Itinerary we are proposing you is only on outline. You could use it to best fitness and interest when practically you are in the field our guide are very comfortable, flexible and understanding to make your trip with full of pleasure.