

Mount Kailash Mansarovar Yatra

It is said that the Holy Himalaya is a Grand palace of the Gods who kept the universe aloof from the sight of evil, witlessness, egotism and misapprehension. It is believed that here, the universe leapt from a deific place whose trailer could demolish all evil. Admired as the focal point of universe, this place is Kailash Mansarovar.

In Sanskrit, Kailash means crystal and according to Hindu Mythology, Kailash is the worldly conceivable appearance of Mt. Meru. It is the dwelling of Lord Shiva along with his companion Goddess Parvati. They reside on the top of this mountain in supreme harmony performing yoga sternness. Whereas, Buddhists confront their own belief about it. They believe that Saint Padmasambhaya gained enlightenment here. So they consider it as heaven on earth. It is also believed that Queen Maya was brought here before giving birth to Lord Buddha.

Bonpos consider it as the valuable and exquisite snow mountain or Gang Rinpoche, an enormous Mandal which is the nucleus of all tantric forces. Jains regard this place as the mystical mountain of Astapada where the founder Rishabhadeva achieved spiritual deliverance. Similarly, Sikh scriptures suggest that the founder Guru Nanak Dev studied meditation methods and techniques on the top of this mountain and he is considered as one of the rare people who mounted the peak of this holy mountain.

Lake Mansarovar

If there is something common between the four great rivers of Asia- the Indus, the Sutlej, the Brahmaputra and the Karnali (Ganga), then it is the lake Mansarovar which is the source of all these rivers. It is widely believed that a person bathing in this lake or drinking its water is free from all his sins. According to Hindu Mythology, Lord Brahma first created this lake in his mind. So it is named as Mansarovar. In Sanskrit, Mansarovar is a combination of two words, 'Mana' and 'Sarovar'; 'Mana' means mind and 'Sarovar' means lake.

Nevertheless, the pilgrimage to this spiritual region is difficult and tiring. Though it is considered as one of the Asia's most religious yet difficult voyages, this sacred region is one of the most visited places on earth. This region is believed to have invisible magnetic powers that attract people across the world towards it.

Insurance

Appropriate medical and travel Insurance before the trip is recommended to our clients. The insurance policy is to be made sure to include emergency and rescue coverage.

Altitude Sickness

One of the major factors on Tibet trip that determines the stiffness is altitude. The altitude over 5000m is not a great deal in our trip. This is a serious issue since it can lead to mild or severe impact on your health no matter how healthy you are. Headache, nausea or vomiting, dizziness, vertigo, loss of appetite and difficulty in sleeping are some of the symptoms. One must be aware about how your body is functioning and must keep your body extremely hydrated in order to prevent this. For your body to adjust in this tough climate and altitude, rest days also can be organized. We also carry prescribed medicines (Diamox) which contributes in preventing symptoms. Our gear also includes several oxygen tanks and portable altitude chambers. A recent medical file with your medical history along with recent medical report is recommended for this type of trip. One must be aware of the fact that you are travelling at your own risk.

Physical Fitness

Our clients need to be relatively healthy although most of the trip will be done in vehicles. Some energetic and active hiking is required for the trek around Kailash and can leave some physical distress on the body. An exercise routine for minimum of an hour in alternate days before trip is strongly recommended for our clients. Hiking and jogging and some stamina building exercise would be perfect workout for the trip. Please consult your doctor if you have any chronic health problems. We extremely welcome your queries about the physical demands of the trip.
